

Your RV Checklist

Provided by:

www.anpac.com

RV Insurance That Goes the Distance

OUTSIDE THE RV			INSIDE THE RV
Awnings secured/locked	TOW VEHICLE OR MOTORHOME	Antenna/satellite dish down	Antenna/satellite dish down
Roof/Slideout awnings – clear of debris			Antenna booster switch off
Ladder stowed			Small appliances off & stowed
Rear levelers/jacks/blocks up and stowed*			Countertops cleared
TV cables stowed			Sink covers/drain plugs in place
Electric cable/accessories stowed			Microwave/oven/stove off Doors latched
Slide-outs retracted and locked			Refrigerator contents secured and doors latched
Sewer hose and accessories stowed			Shelves secured
Dump valves closed - cap in place			Cabinets and drawers closed/secured
Holding tanks prepared with chemicals			Dining table and chairs secured
Freshwater tank partially filled			Ceiling vents closed
Water hose and pressure regulator stowed			Furnace/air conditioner off
Water heater off (outside switch)			Windows latched
Propane turned off (unless running w/ refrigerator on)			Window blinds up or down
Hitch up trailer or 5 th wheel			Shower items stowed
Hook breakaway switch cable			Toilet prepped/seat down
Plug in umbilical power cord			Water heater off
Light connections cleaned/tested	Water pump off
Lock hitch on trailer ball and 5 th wheel	Nightstands cleared
Safety chains attached	Closet doors closed/secured
Landing legs up and pins in*	Privacy curtain tied back
Levelers up (motorhome)	Pocket doors secured
Wheels chocks/covers stowed	Bathroom doors secured
Doormat/nameplate stowed	Slideouts locked, if needed
Compartment doors locked	Levelers retracted (motorhome)
Door(s) locked	Lights off (interior)
Step(s) raised	Entry door locked
Grab bar closed and secured	Passengers in belted seats
*for trailer, tow vehicle and/or 5th wheels			Pets secured

NOTES:

The abovementioned steps are recommended, but are not all-inclusive. Depending on the type and style of the recreational vehicle, there may be additional steps an owner will need to consider to ensure the safety of the vehicle and its passengers. Please follow any safety steps recommended by the manufacturer of your vehicle as well. LM-094 (1-05)